LIFE’S FLEETING MOMENTS

Benjamin Franklin wrote: “Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time; for that’s the stuff life is made of. If time be of all things the most precious, wasting time must be the greatest prodigality; since lost time is never found again and what we call time enough always proves little enough. Let us then be up and doing to the purpose; so by diligence shall we do more with less perplexity. Sloth makes all things difficult, but industry all easy. Employ thy time well, if thou meanest to gain leisure. Since thou art not sure of a minute, throw not away an hour.” Jesus observed: “I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work” (John 9:4).

Time is a precious commodity. Life’s moments are fleeting. Moses observed: “We spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is there strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away” (Psalm 90:9, 10).

Tragically, too many people do squander time. They spend the present regretting the past or dreading the future, neither of which should be our greatest concern. We cannot change the past, and there is no future if we neglect the present. The crucial question is not, "What have we done?" Nor, is it, "What are we planning to do?" The important question is, "What are we doing now?" That is especially true in the spiritual realm! Now is the time to live for Jesus. We must not rest on past laurels, nor should we delay our response to His call for another time. "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2).

Do you believe that Jesus Christ was the Son of God? Are you ready to repent of your sins? Will you be baptized for the remission of your sins (Acts 2:38)? Now is the time to act. Tomorrow may be too late!

THINGS ABOUT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

The church of Christ has no earthly headquarters. On a number of occasions people ask, "Where are the headquarters of the church of Christ?" They mean by that in what city are your central offices, etc. They are surprised when we say, "We have no headquarters. Each congregation makes its own decisions based on the Bible." Since the head of the church is Christ, and since Christ is in heaven, then heaven must be the location of the headquarters (Col. 1:18, 24; 1 Pet. 3:22; Phil. 3:20). No board hands down controversial decisions; no dues have to be sent in each month; no one decides (or has to approve) preacher relocations.

There's a reason the things of this world don't satisfy.

I have given them Your Word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world anymore than I am of the world. John 17:14

RAMBLINGS

--By Roger

Our thanks to Doug Petty for his message last Wednesday evening. Our Summer Series speaker this Wednesday evening will be Nathan Green. Nathan works with the Barlow/Vincent congregation.

Thanks to Todd Hague for teaching our class this morning from John 1. God willing, Harry Ogletree will teach next Sunday from Ephesians 4.

Our final service at the Marietta Center was last Sunday afternoon. Our thanks to all who participated in those services, and especially those who led the singing each week. I am confident the residents appreciated our time with them.

Thanks to Tanner Ogle for his message last Sunday evening, and to all those who participated in our evening assembly last week.

The Annual Father-Son Campout at Wolf Run State Park is this weekend. We look forward to having all our campers back with us this evening. Don't forget our Annual Church Picnic will be this Saturday at the Oak Grove Recreational Center. Meat will be provided. Please bring a covered dish and dessert and join us. We plan to eat around 5:00.

I hope you read the note in last week's bulletin regarding the Isaac Beaver Benefit Account. Isaac is the one year old son of Josh and Maurie Casto Beaver. His father passed away suddenly July 14 at the young age of 33. If you would like to make a contribution to the fund, write your check to the Isaac Beaver Benefit Account and give it to Bill McFarland, or leave it in the office with Traci and she will see that it gets to Bill.

GOLF OUTING

The Monroe/Noble County Chapter of Stepping Stones for Ohio Valley University will be hosting a golf scramble Saturday, September 24, at the Riverside Golf Course in Sardis, Ohio. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. with a shotgun start at 8:00 a.m. Please see the flyer on the bulletin board in the foyer for more information.
